

CRISIS OF GIRLHOOD

A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL

Miss Emma Cole Says that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Saved Her Life and Made Her Well

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

Miss Emma Cole

Girls' modesty and oversensitiveness often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, because they withhold their confidence at this critical period.

A mother should come to her child's aid and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the system for the coming change and start the menstrual period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Miss Emma Cole of Tallahassee, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I want to tell you that I am enjoying better health than I have for years, and I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

"When fourteen years of age I suffered almost constant pain, and for two or three years I had soreness and pain in my side, headaches and was dizzy and nervous, and doctors all failed to help me."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking it my health began to improve rapidly, and I think it saved my life. I sincerely hope my experience will be a help to other girls who are passing from girlhood to womanhood, for I know your Compound will do as much for them."

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice ask her to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will receive free advice which will put her on the right road to strong, healthy and happy womanhood.

MISS BONNER ENTERTAINS WARRINGTON FRIENDS.

A popular and jolly crowd of the Warrington young folks (more commonly known as the "D. L. K's") were charmingly entertained at a card party given by Miss Bessie Bonner, at her pretty residence, 33 Canal Street, on Wednesday evening.

The smiling young faces and rich costumes of the pretty belles in attendance added glow to the pretty white and green effects, which were the colors of the evening.

After enjoying a variety of card and other games, the merry party were ushered to the dining room, where dainty refreshments were served. This inspired some of the vocal talent present, who gave those in attendance a treat in the way of a few of the latest popular songs, which were excellently rendered, accompanied by guitar, in the hands of Mr. Frank A. Bonner.

Those present were: Misses Katie and Maggie Teichmann, Misses Emma and Pettie Rance, Miss Emily Cochran, Miss Loretta Hubbard, Miss Lezoria Gathenly, Miss Mary Seely, Miss Hettie Boyden, Miss Katie Burkhardt, Miss Florence Simpson, Miss Louise Handlon and Miss Millie Lombard, Messrs. "Rob" Laird, Gus Teichmann, T. Mooney, Gustav (comic) Ronnloff, Frank Carroll, Johnnie Gathenly, Harkley Clifford, Jeff Cochran, John Seely and John Fell.

After assuring Miss Bessie and her jolly and entertaining parents (Mr. and Mrs. R. Bonner), of their appreciation of the hospitality dispensed at their hands, the happy "D. L. K's" reluctantly departed for their homes. The first prize (cup and saucer) was won by Mr. John Gathenly; the second (doll), by Miss Florence Simpson.

A JOLLY FISH FRY AND A GHOST AT DELTA.

A jolly party of people, some of them refugees of Pensacola, had a Fish Fry at Murphy's Old Mill Friday, Oct. 12th. The day was delightful and all the party in excellent spirits. There was an abundance of fish which the young ladies cooked to a turn and they do say there are no girls in the country who can beat them. One or two of the crowd declared they ate seventeen. The coffee was strong and one small woman drank four cups—it always tastes so good at a fish fry you know.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Parazine and daughters Misses Maggie, Laura and Zoe; Mrs. Phoebe Everett and daughters Misses Idell, Millie, Edie and Susie; Mrs. Norris and son Johnnie, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Tray and two children, Mr. Louis Alfred, Mrs. N. L. Parazine, children and mother Mrs. M. H. Fairchild; and Mr. J. H. Raines of Alabama. It is rumored there is a ghost in the woods. Two young men who were going home after making a call on some young ladies when something white suddenly rose up before them. They both broke in a run back to the young ladies for protection—or comfort, which? One of them says, "Is no disgrace to run when you are scared."

MRS. HART'S BRIDGE FOR MRS. JOHN C. AVERY.

Mrs. James F. Hart entertained at bridge this morning, says the Athens correspondent of the Atlanta Journal, in compliment to Mrs. John C. Avery, of Pensacola, Fla. "Nicholson Place" was beautiful with palms and La France roses. A delicious salad course was served at the close of the morning's pleasure. Miss Sallie Harris won the first prize, an ebony and silver tea strainer. Mrs. Avery cut the consolation, a pack of cards in leather case. Mrs. Hart was assisted by Mrs. Campbell Avery, Jr., Mrs. LeRoy Hart and Mrs. M. G. Nicholson. The players were Mrs. J. C. Avery, Mrs. H. C. White, Mrs. A. R. Nicholson, Mrs. Charles Scudder, Mrs. W. H. Bocock, Mrs. R. W. Larkin, Mrs. Billups Philbrick, Mrs. B. F. Hardeman, Mrs. C. M. Spelling and Miss Avery. Miss Sallie Harris, Miss Louise Morris and Mrs. May Harris Brumby.

MISS LEHR IS BETTER.

On Friday evening it was rumored that Miss Lehr was falling and Saturday morning she was said to have passed away, but, happily both rumors were false. Last night she was improving and it is believed that she will get along nicely.

Miss Lehr is greatly beloved by all who know her. She is a noble, self-sacrificing girl, devoting her life to the care of her mother whose sole support she is, and since the advent of the fever it is said that she has faithfully and capably nursed anyone she could who needed her, whether they were able to pay for her services or not, until she herself broke down.

Many persons will rejoice that she has passed the crisis and many prayers are being offered for her speedy recovery.

MISS COULSON APPOINTED STATE SPONSOR.

Miss Genevieve Coulson is in receipt of a letter from General Ballentine notifying her that she has been appointed state sponsor, for the reunion to be held in Jacksonville, Dec. 13 and 14.

Miss Coulson is now in Louisville, Ky., where she has spent the last two months, but will return in time to attend the reunion.

MRS. HOLTSMAN'S DAUGHTER RECENTLY MARRIED.

Pensacola friends of Mrs. Holtsman of New York, who made many friends while visiting Mrs. T. V. Kesler, will be interested to learn that her daughter Genevieve is married and she and her husband met Mr. and Mrs. W. deC. Kessler in Washington and together the happy quartette made the trip to Baltimore where they are now registered at Kennilworth Inn.

MR. FELL'S ACCIDENT A VERY SERIOUS ONE.

Mrs. W. C. Walker is in receipt of a letter from her sister, Mrs. William Fell, stating that her husband, Mr. Fell, accidentally stuck a ten penny nail through his foot on October 10 at Millview and serious results are feared.

Particulars are not given beyond the fact that an effort to get Dr. Blocker of this city failed because the telephone lines were out of order, and as no other physician was available they sent five miles for a non-professional who could administer morphine.

Meantime Mr. Fell's sufferings had become so intense that several men were required to control him. On Friday his condition was heartrending and he himself believed he could not recover.

Mr. Fell went to Millview during the summer to recuperate from a long illness and when the quarantine was announced Mr. Fell joined her to quiet her nervous apprehensions for his safety.

Further news of the gentleman is awaited with anxiety by his many friends and relatives in this city.

TWO PENSACOLA GIRLS EARN THEIR OWN HOMES.

Two well known young business women, both employees of Mr. F. E. Brawner for several years past, who are to be congratulated with as little envy as possible, are Miss Annie Langley and Miss Della Burns.

These two practical young business women have just come into possession of new and beautiful homes, bought and paid for with their own savings out of their own individual earnings, an accomplishment of which they may well feel justly proud, and one, moreover, that many men, young and old have failed to reach, while few saleswomen have even seriously tried to accomplish it.

Miss Langley with her father, is now occupying her beautiful and newly furnished home on West Garden street.

Miss Burns received her residence last evening from her contractor, and will move into it this week. Her property adjoins that of Miss Langley and in a few days these two good friends and co-workers will be happily living—as they have been working—side by side, under their own roofs, free from debt.

What they have done hundreds of others may do, and their example will doubtless inspire others to a similar effort. And the writer joins all who know them in sincere congratulations, trusting they may be as successful in the future in attaining their ambitions.

The Friday Euchre met with Mrs. George White. Mrs. C. D. Beyer carried off the ace prize, the hostess captured the consolation. Mrs. Vincent Fawcett the lone hand prize and Mrs. Thos. Thorsen the booty. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Thorsen.

Mr. F. B. Hagerman is expected home in a few days from Nashville, Tenn., where he is visiting his wife and son. Letters to home friends bring the pleasant news that Mrs. Hagerman is much improved.

Mrs. H. E. Nolan, who has been very ill at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Victor Holst on the Bayou, returned last evening quite recovered and is at her home, 517 East Gregory.

Miss Agnes Neal's innumerable friends were glad to learn that, though still weak she was able to resume her duties at the telephone exchange yesterday. Her "still, small voice" was indeed a welcome sound.

Mrs. John Wood and daughters, Miss Adele Chaffin, and the two little girls, will leave Atlanta tomorrow and go to Greenville, Ala., to visit Mr. Wood's sisters Mrs. Beeland and Miss Lucy Wood.

Mr. S. M. Phillips "the candy man" has been wrestling with dengue for the past four days to the regret of the many friends he has won among his customers and others.

Everybody will be pleased to learn that Mr. Fred Sweet was resting easily last night. Mrs. Sweet did not seem so well but no serious turn is anticipated.

Master Clarence and Miss Anna Ruth, children of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Caro are up from their siege of fever, to the joy of their family and friends.

Beryl the little son of Capt. and Mrs. E. G. Crist is recovering from a severe attack of bilious fever. His illness was particularly unfortunate at this time as his mother was also ill of yellow fever. However, both are now slowly improving.

Master Bertram and Master Alvin Dannheisser left Thursday accompanied by their uncle, Mr. Nathan G. For-schelmier for Cincinnati, O.

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hyer, Jr., entertained at dinner Thursday night in compliment to Mr. James Leonard on his twenty-first birthday.

The many friends of Miss Julia Knowles and her mother will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Knowles is recovering from a recent illness.

Mrs. A. M. Avery is expected home today from Atlanta, where the Misses Avery will remain for a more extended visit.

Miss Teresa Neri has about recovered from an attack of bilious fever and her friends are glad that she escaped the more serious type.

Mrs. Sam Friedman and two daughters who have been in Atlanta are now in Nashville, having a good time.

Mr. Mark Morrill is improving and was able to sit up Friday.

The many anxious friends of Mrs. Bonar will be pleased to learn that she is on the way to recovery and that her two little girls are quite well.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lichten and family left Friday for Nashville.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Hirschman left Friday for the north, Mr. and Mrs. Lay Hirschman having preceded them earlier in the week.

Mrs. W. C. Mackey has returned from a visit to Mr. Mackey's parents at Roberts.

Mrs. J. I. Bryan is sitting up and doing nicely.

Miss Ruth Glenn who has been quite ill sat up Friday for the first time, and is convalescing satisfactorily.

Mr. J. A. Chaffin and daughters are spending October in Michigan at Battle Creek.

PENSACOLIANS IN CITY OF NASHVILLE

Secretary Jones Has Met Large Number Since His Visit To That Progressive City.

The following letter was received by The Journal last evening from Secretary W. C. Jones, of the Chamber of Commerce, who is at present in Nashville upon a short visit:

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 12, 1935.
Editor Pensacola Journal:

A Pensacolian in Nashville these days is sometimes persuaded that at least a portion of good old Pensacola has been transferred bodily to the hills of hospitable middle Tennessee.

I have been here a week today and on every day of my stay I have been pleased to meet some friend or acquaintance from home.

There are, in fact, I should say, at least a hundred and fifty Pensacolians here. And still they come.

Among those whom I have met are the following: Col. R. M. Cary and family, Miss Fannie Bonifay, C. H. Dishman and family, Isadore Friedman, G. W. Gonzalez and family, S. Z. Gonzalez, Jr., Mrs. Elizabeth Gonzalez, Miss Irene Gonzalez, E. H. Skinner and family, Adolph Cohen and wife, Thos. Kent and family, Mrs. Louis Friedman and children, O. M. Pryor and family, Miss Louise Moreno, Chas. W. Merritt and wife, Harry Ferriss, Ernest Caro, Mrs. Treanor and daughter, Eugene Acosta and wife, Dr. T. J. Welsh and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pebley, Mrs. Boykin Jones, Mrs. F. B. Hagerman, Miss McAllister, Ben Hancock, Homer Brown of the Gordon-Brown Hardware Co., John Stokes, Mr. Huey of the Union Depot News Stand and Mr. Mallett of the Consolidated Naval Stores Co.

I am informed that the only Sam Rosenan "blew" into town on yesterday morning's southern breeze, but so far I haven't been able to locate his Nashville haunts, therefore I haven't as yet connected with the usually superheated currents of atmosphere which circulate in the vicinity of Sam's location for the moment.

This is my first visit to Nashville, for any length of time, in more than ten years, and on every hand I am impressed with the magnificent strides that have been made within the past decade toward metropolitanism. Nashville is truly a community of progress and evident prosperity. And the hospitality of the people here, proverbial as it is under ordinary circumstances, is certainly accentuated in the case of people who are new guests of the city from the enforced circumstances of being refugees from the yellow fever country.

There was a frost here this morning, indeed beautiful to look upon and in the absence of a weather bureau report of the temperature at Pensacola, I cannot help but speculate upon the condition of the weather there. I shall return home on next Tuesday afternoon.

W. C. JONES.
